Stacy Mathison, a student at Renton Junior High was honored at the October 28th board meeting by resolution of the board.

Stacy participated in the "America and Me" essay contest sponsored by Farm Bureau Insurance Company. Farm Bureau offers this contest each year. Stacy wrote a beautiful essay that she summarized to one page and it was read at the board meeting. Trustee McKinney read the excerpt and the audience expressed their appreciation with applause.

Stacy was given a proclamation honoring her for her efforts. The Huron River Weekly has requested a copy of the complete essay as well as the summary and we hope to print at least a portion of the essay.

In another unrelated matter, the board approved the hiring of Glen Eikenberg as

Letter to the Editor

Letter to the Editor: I am disappointed, but I'm not sure who is responsible for this disappointment. In July this paper printed an article saying there was a contest to design the cover of the 1998 Applefest booklet.

For hours I watched my daughter, create, draw, and color an adorable picture. With pride I drove her down to the township hall so she could turn it in before the deadline.

I saw the disappointment in her eyes as the day for the Applefest drew nearer, and she had not heard anything about the contest results.

In the 14 years I have lived in Huron Township I have never missed the Applefest, and even though it was raining, I am sure glad I didn't miss this one. While walking through with my daughters, I glanced to the side and this little booklet with the bright vivid colors I remember jumped out at me. My two girls kept right on walking. I yelled "Becky, It's your picture!" We were so excited and that is the only recognition she received!

We found the township clerk in the D.A.R.E. booth, she stated she had tried calling to let Becky know she won the contest, but could not get through. Anyone with teenagers in the house and no call waiting knows that this could be an impossible task. Becky wrote down her name and address and gave it to her.

Three weeks later I called the clerk's office because Becky still had not received her prize. Once again the clerk took down Becky's address and phone number.

I have read this paper weekly and I have seen the pictures and the articles of all the other Applefest contest winners, no word was ever mentioned about the booklet cover and no word of recognition was mentioned in the booklet itself. In fact if my daughter had not printed her name in small print under her picture, which came out in the copying process, no one would ever know of her work!

Please, if you look at the front cover of your Applefest booklet, know that my 16-year-old daughter Rebecca Herman, did this fine work of art and imagination. We, her family are very, very proud of her!

Note: At the time of this writing she still has not received her prize!!

Huron Township Election Results

by LARRY O'KELLEY
Freelance Writer

There were few races that Huron Township played a role in the final outcome. Ordinarily Huron Township — because of its low population and average turnout — does not play any role, but this year it was a little different.

The race most affected by Huron's results were the votes cast in the 34th District Judge race. Norm Kohlstrand who is a resident of Huron Township had hoped that he would do well enough in Huron to offset Brian Oakley's expected large vote in his hometown of Romulus. Then by splitting or taking Van Buren Township, the City of Belleville and Township of Sumpter he would be able to claim victory.

However, Kohlstrand barely took Huron Township with a vote total of 1,473 (51-percent) to Oakley's 1,424 (49-percent). Coupled with the large vote for Oakley in the other communities the vote total was clearly in the Oakley's favor. The final tally was Oakley 9,294, Kohlstrand 5,683.

In another race that Huron Township may have played a part in was the race for the 11th district for the Wayne County Board of Commissioners. Bruce Patterson had chosen not to run for re-election and decided instead to run for the state house. Melissa McLaughlin was his hand-picked successor and because of the low profile type campaign of her opponent Democrat John Sullivan it was expected that McLaughlin would likely be elected.

However, in Huron Township Sullivan garnered 1,697 votes (52-percent) to McLaughlin's 1,576 votes (48-percent). When the final votes were tallied Sullivan had won a squeaker by 47 votes. The final tally was 20,141 to 20,094.

The last race that The Huron River Weekly watched was the race for the 23rd District House seat. Democrat George Mans easily took Huron Township with a vote of 1,956 (56-percent), to his Republican opponent Elizabeth Kalabus who was able to garner 1,369 (40-percent) votes. Mans had an easy victory with a vote total of 17,799 to 10,779.

American Association Of University Women

The Wyandotte/Downriver Branch of the American Association of University Women welcomed Dr. Bruce Jones, of Grosse Ile, to the November General Meeting, which was held on Tuesday, November 10, in the First Presbyterian Church of Wyandotte, 22nd and Oak Street. Dr. Jones addressed an issue of vital interest to all Downriver residents as he spoke on "A New Look at an Old River." His remarks focused on the proposed Humbug Marsh Area development, which many feel may negate the purpose of the American Heritage River designation recently awarded to the Detroit River and which could destroy the only remaining untouched wildlife habitat on the river. Dr. Jones, a graduate of the School of Dentistry at the University of Michigan, has been a resident of the Downriver area and all his life and practiced in the area for many years. He has a deep affection and appreciation for the natural beauty of the Downriver area. As a founding member and first president of the Grosse Ile Nature and Land Conservancy, he has actively supported ecological interests and citizen responsibility for the environment. Mrs. Ruth Briggs, of Trenton, the Program Vice-President of the Branch, will welcomed Mr. Jones. Members, guests and interested community residents attended.

President Laurel Plagens of Dearborn presided at the business session which began the evening, and refreshments were served following the meeting. Members of this Branch of the AAUW represent many Downriver communities, from Woodhaven and Wyandotte, to Allen Park and Ecorse, and enjoy an active program of Study-Interest Groups in addition to the usual monthly programs. They support the National Education Foundation, donate yearly local scholarships and contribute to the AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund.

AAUW, founded in 1881, is open to all graduates who hold the baccalaureate or higher degree from a regionally accredited college or university. In principle and practice, the organization values and seeks a diverse membership, and welcomes all qualified applicants. AAUW promotes equity for all women and girls, lifelong education and positive societal changes. For membership information please call (313) 274-8933, or (734) 676-3573.

the township's part-time building inspector. He was hired at a rate of $18 per hour and the vote to approve was unanimous. Glen's hiring brought an end to the frustration of trying to hire a building inspector to attend to the inspection/approval duties.

In a somewhat related matter, Trustee McKinney re-introduced the concept of limiting building permits in the township. He proposed a resolution that limited the amount of new construction permits to 100 per year. Based on this, permits for other than new construction would not be affected. He stated there was "some reality" to the number based on the township's recent history.

Clerk Bowers questioned the ability to enforce the resolution based on the township's approval so building projects that had not yet started but would likely start in the near future. She questioned whether the township could withdraw the permits that had been previously approved.

The board seemed to be concerned about the best way to approach the issue - by resolution or by ordinance. Treasurer Adkins remarked that the Township of Woodhaven may have tried a similar concept and the courts rejected it. He indicated he was willing to contact Woodhaven and secure additional details.

Trustee Glaab seemed opposed to specifying a number and agreed with the supervisor's recommendation that they set up a joint board/planning commission meeting. The board agreed to hold that meeting December 10th. The township attorney also indicated that "slow growth ordinances" may be able to overcome court challenges because of a recent federal appeals case that ruled in favor of a community in Ohio.

*V8 Healthy Request is my choice

This week I am improving on an old favorite, Cabbage Soup which by the way is one of the lowest in calories and fat.

I love flavor in my food and this soup is a prime example of that. The vegetable juice not only adds flavor it also makes it thicker and the red wine is the piesta resistance.

Some people like to add meat to this soup like bacon, kielbasa, or andouille (Louisiana sausage) so if you can't live without meat, please feel free to add it.

Please let me know how I'm doing with the column or if you have any questions, contact: The Huron River Weekly-Al Fresco, P.O. Box 472, New Boston, MI 48164, phone 734-753-4416 or fax 734-753-4417.

Correction: The November 4 recipe for Corn Chowder should have read: Thicken soup by mashing it a little after it is cooked.

Side By Side

The Huron Civic Theatre will open its 1998-99 season with Side By Side, By Sondheim. A musical extravaganza filled with the wondrous music of Stephen Sondheim. Production dates are November 13, 14, and 15, 1998. Friday and Saturday curtains are 8 p.m., Sunday matinees are at 3 p.m. Ticket prices are $10 for adults and $8 for seniors and students. All performances will be held at Huron Civic Theatre, 32044 Huron River Drive, New Boston, MI 48164 (just ten minutes south of Metro Airport, across from Michigan Memorial Cemetery.) For tickets and information, call 734-782-5380 and leave a message.

This production is directed by Nick Beasanski of Trenton, and produced by Dorothy Holdren of Rockwood.

Thank You

A big thanks goes out to Margaret O'Kelley and all staff, also to the community whom brought smiles and gifts to the mule-drawn wagon convoy that was parked on the Burkes Farm for a week in July, 1998.

The story was written so nice and true, also the pictures were beautiful. Thanks again to Margaret and staff from the Coverts family and the Burkes.
